said concerning the work of Miss Barnum:Miss Harriet C. Barnum, reflecting the inheritance of the ability of her great showman ancestry, captivated the audience when she played class-artist with her quiet, simple, dignified and unassuming manner, drew forth a greater, a more prolonged and hearty applause than had been given any individual or collective group during all the five days of the chautauqua.The reception accorded this group of young ladies with their clean, fine performance, from start to finish

HEAD SETS FORTH SOME EXCELLENT POINTERS.INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2 (UP)— Accidents in Indiana would be greatly reduced if motorists would only heed the warnings of the Hoosier State Automobile Association, in the opinion of M. E. Noblet, Secretary-Manager of the association."Right now when the daily line of traffic on state highways is becoming thicker and thicker is the time for every motorist to comply with every rule and regulation of driving a motor vehicle to avoid serious mishaps," Noblet said."One of the greatest practices in this state," he said, "is the failure of motorists to pull their automobile clear of the highway when they stop for a minor repair of fixing a puncture.""When a driver wants to stop on a state highway," Noblet said, "he should drive the car entirely off the pavement, so that he will not interrupt the approaching traffic, and cause accidents.""Many states," the speaker said "have a specific regulation which provides that a car stopping on a highway must be driven half off the pavement, but with the speed limits being lifted on most thoroughfares, it would be much safer for the driver to run his car clear off the road.""The motorists has demanded higher speed limits because he knows they are safe, but he must not defeat the undoubted safety of high speed traffic by being one of the careless drivers who parks his car right in the line of traffic while fixing a tire or doing some little repair," Noblet concluded.Rotary Club In

STEP IN POWER-LIGHT COMBINE.Full approval of the plans for the proposed merger of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction Company and the Terre Haute Traction & Light Company with the Indiana Electric Corporation was voted Wednesday at special meetings of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern and the Terre Haute Traction & Light companies.The next step toward the consolidation of these traction properties with the Central Indiana Power Company into the Indiana Electric Corporation is expected to be taken shortly in the form of a petition to the state public service commission for permission to effect the merger.The Terre Haute Traction & Light Company stockholders held their meeting Wednesday morning in Terre Haute. R. N. Filbeck of the Terre Haute Savings bank was chairman of the meeting. These shareholders voted unanimously in favor of the consolidation.The meeting of the stockholders of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern company was held during the afternoon at Indianapolis, only one vote being cast against the merger.
In voting approval of the merger, one change was made in the merger plans, affecting the granting to the merger managers of authority to dispose of the eastern division of the
operating the traction line from Indianapolis to Richmond, and a branch line from Dunreith to Newcastle. This division will be excluded from the merger.At the meeting, however, there was no indication that any step was contemplated other than inclusion of the authority to sell that property. The two companies, one an operating company, and the Terre Haute Traction and Light Company, a subsidiary operate one of the largest interurban traction systems in the country, its total trackage being approximately four hundred and fifty miles of main lines, in addition to considerable mileage in side tracks and spurs. The Central Indiana Power Company serves more than one hundred and thirty communities in central and northern Indiana with electric power and owns and operates a superpower station at Dresser, Ind. It is owned and operated by Samuel Insull and his associates and the proposed merger properties also will be under the Insull management and control.

Trans-Atlantic Liners.NEW YORK, Aug. 2. (UP)—Five fleet Atlantic liners were converging today on a spot in mid-Atlantic to rescue the flying boat Whale and its four occupants, forced down on a flight from the Azores to Newfoundland.The Whale's radio sputtered out its call for help during the early morning hours and the ships of several nations combined in the race to save Capt. Frank T. Courtney and his companions.The American ships President Hayes and Minnewaska, the White Star liners Celtic and Cedric and the North German Lloyd liner Columbus were definitely known to be speeding to the rescue.Other vessels, including the Penn-land, Gripsholm, Franconia and the Thuringia, lent their wireless to the work and the safety of the Whale seemed almost assured.
She was down about 720 miles northwest of Horta, Azores, which she left at 1:55 p. m. EST. yesterday and about 800 miles southeast of Cape Race, Newfoundland, her goal.
The latitude was 42 degrees north and longitude 41 west.The call for help came about 5 a. m. EST., approximately 15 hours after the Whale left the Azores, and was picked up by several vessels.Rescue appeared imminent shortly before noon today, as the Cedric was only about 100 miles from the position of the Whale when she started to her aid.If the Whale is picked up, it will be only the fifth time in the perious history of trans-Atlantic flying that a plane's crew has survived after being forced down on the water.Jury Finds Two

LANDED AT LA RABIDA

Commander Franco Will Make Retrasts Columbus' Start.PORT OF HUELVA, SPAIN, Aug.

2 (UP)—Riding the surf at the Little Port of La Rabida, where Christopher Columbus started on the voyage that resulted in discovery of America, the damaged seaplane Numanica waited today to start on a modern metrod to reach that same America.The plane, piloted by Commandant Ramon Franco, was forced to land at La Rabida yesterday morning after having started from Cadiz on the first part of an around the world flight.Engine trouble developing in the first hour of the flight from Cadiz—a flight that was to have its first terming at Horta, Azores—was believed responsible for the forced landing at La Rabida.Franco and his companions—Captain Ruiz De Alda, Captain Emilio Gallarza and mechanic Pablo Rada—remained secluded after landing. They indicated they desired to start again for the Azores as soon as was possible.The Numanica—a four motored Dornier-Waco plane—had difficulty in taking off with its heavy load yesterday, but once in the air it seemed to be functioning perfectly.The craft carried a radio and expected to report regular progress enroute to the Azores and then to Newfoundland. But the reports were not forthcoming.Then it was learned that a landing had been made at La Rabida, 50 miles northwest of Cadiz. It was considered likely that trouble developed over Portugal, and that Franco had returned to La Rabida, where he started his successful flight to South America in 1926.The plane was damaged, but the extent was not known. Repairs were started immediately. No one was permitted to talk with the four flyers.
Vice Admiral Sanchez visited Franco aboard the craft.The four worked throughout the dinner hour. At nightfall, they went to a monastery to spend the night.
They expected to go to mass this morning.The aviators made their landing just as the residents of La Rabida—a port known as Dette as Palos—were celebrating the anniversary of Columbus' start towards America, August 3, 1492.Franco said he had suspected a slight motor trouble and had decided to return to La Rabida. He said this fulfilled a promise to say farewell to the superiors of the La Rabida convent.Kiwanis Hear

Do You Know? What Everywoman Knows

"Thought I wouldn't say much about my business when I went into Templeton's Grocery on West Berry Street. I asked Mr. Templeman a lot of questions about Greenville, its wonderful colleges, fine students, railroad facilities, factories, mills, etc., until he up and asked 'what is your business if you have any besides bothering me?'"

"Oh, I want to find out how people like Middy Bread," I answered.

"Well, I heard one woman say the other day it had the best flavor and was so soft and nice to eat. I expect that's largely the reason they like it!"

I went away satisfied for he had discovered some of the things we have always known about it."

Broad Ripple Park, Indianapolis, which has become a veritable mecca toward which people seeking summer recreation turn has this season exceeded itself in popularity as the outstanding amusement park in Indiana. It has really become an Indiana institution for gatherings, outings, and picnics.

AUTOMOBILES KILL 514
IN FOUR-WEEK PERIOD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—Automobile accidents occasioned 514 deaths in the seventy-seven largest cities of the United States during the four weeks ending July 14. The figures, furnished today by the Commerce Department, compare with 573 deaths during the corresponding four weeks in 1927. In the previous four weeks, ending June 16, 1928, the automobile fatalities numbered 498. The greatest number of deaths in any four weeks were reported last November, when automobiles killed 686 persons.

BANS POLICEWOMAN

OSHKOSH, Wis., Aug. 1 (UP)— A "representation of 500 women voters" doesn't mean anything to Chief-of-Police Gabbert, who ruled a policewoman unnecessary here.
"I do not intend to be twayed from what I believe my duty," he replied to a statement of the League of Women Voters. The women seek the reinstatement of Miss Myrtle Bessey on the police force, from which she was dropped when Chief Gabbert told the city council Oshkosh didn't need a policewoman.

RACE DRIVER MAY DIE

RUSHVILLE, Aug. 1 (UP)— Kenneth Holdaway, 25, automobile dirt track race driver, was critically injured here and today is in an Indianapolis hospital where his recovery is doubtful. Holdaway, who resides at Indianapolis, and who is a student at Butler University, was attempting to qualify when his automobile turned over six times on the track.

WOMAN MAKES RICH FIND

THE PAS, Manitoba, Aug. 2 (UP)— For the first time in the history of northern Manitoba, a woman has made a mineral discovery of major importance. Miss Kathleen Rice, graduate of the University of Toronto and well known by pioneer prospectors in the northern mining field, is the woman who has made a rich strike. Her find of copper pyrite was made near the northwest shore of Lake Wekusko. Several attractive offers already have been made for the claim.

STILL AT LARGE.

KOKOMO, Ind., Aug. 2. (UP)— Willard Carson wanted for slaying of his father, at Liberty, Ind., two years ago, is still at large despite a hunt by officers Wednesday which covered Howard county. Armed with machine guns and aided by citizens posses, the officers watched highways and searched woods and thickets but did not get a glimpse of Carson after his hat had been shot from his head as he fled from a clump of bushes southwest of here.

MINE NEGOTIATIONS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 2. (UP)— Representatives of District 11, of United Mine Workers of America, and of Indiana coal mine owners, opened negotiations here today with the object of fixing a new wage scale for Indiana miners.

The negotiations here will be guided largely by results of a mine wage parley for Illinois now in progress at Chicago. Hope prevails in the Indiana mining region that a settlement will be made affording relief to communities which have felt the pinch of want during the long shutdown of the mines.

Pain Banished
VerWilke Brings
Return of Appetite

WONDERS OF NEW MEDI-CINE ARE Praised BY ANOTHER BLOOM-
INGTON WOMAN.

"I was the victim of stomach trouble, gas pains and dizziness and had consulted many doctors without relief, until I was advised just the other day to try the new VerWilke medicine," said Mrs. Lillian Skirvin, 729 N. Walnut Grove Ave., Bloomington.

MRS. LILLIAN SKIRVIN.

"I had been suffering for three or four months and was doctoring for heart trouble. I was totally unable to do my work and was at home most of the time.

"Now, I can not praise too much what this wonderful new medicine has done for me. After I had taken only one bottle of VerWilke, I am happy to say that my dizziness, gas and heart pains had entirely disappeared.

"I am sure no one can blame me for my praise of VerWilke when I say that after trying many remedies and spending months of discomfort and discouragement, I now sleep well and eat anything when I want it. I can now do my housework for the first time since my baby came.

"I can not help but recommend VerWilke very highly to every one who may have experienced such as I had."

VerWilke is not a patent medicine but a prescription used with wonderful success by Dr. J. C.
Vermilya of Bloomington, Indiana for the past 20 years. Get your bottle today, we all need a tonic.

VerWilke is on sale at

They will be glad to talk to

Real Relief Came
When He Started
With New Konjola

Says He Was Suffering With Asthma
And Rundown Condition; Now Entirely Well.

"I want others to know how Kon-jola helped me," said Mr. Gus King, 601 1-2 Division Street, Indianapolis, "because a medicine that will restore new health to a system that was as badly rundown as mine, deserves credit."

"I was severely troubled with asthma and bothered with a wheezing cough that would last for weeks at a time. It felt as though someone was pressing against my chest and this pressure made it almost impossible for me to breathe. My whole system was growing weaker, but I could never find the right medicine to end my suffering.

"I noticed a change over my whole system when I first started to take Konjola. That constricted feeling over my heart disappeared and I am no longer troubled with shortness of breath. It stopped that cough and I am feeling like a different person. I strongly indorse this medicine to anyone in poor health.

The Konjola is sold in Greencastle, Ind., at the Owl drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

AMSTERDAM STADIUM, Aug. 2.
(UP)—The track luck of the United erate cross wind was blowing as the games started today.

C., former Butler University star, finished ahead of Dupont, of France, in the first heat of the 400-meters.
His time was 49.4 seconds. Dupont recondition a MODEL T FORD

FOR nearly twenty years, the Model T Ford led the motor industry and it still is used by more people than any other automobile.
More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service today, —an indication of their sturdy worth, reliability and economy.

The cost of reconditioning the Model T Ford is small because of the low cost of Ford parts and the established Ford policy of charging all labor at a standard flat rate.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3.
Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

Repainting runs from $10 to $25. Taking dents out of body panels and doors runs from $3 to $16 for labor. A fender can be replaced for a labor charge of $1 to $2.50. The cost of fenders runs from $3.50 to $5.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of pleasant, reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.
